Dear Friend,

As we turn the page to a new Jewish year, our hearts are full of gratitude for the light and strength we share as a community. As we enter 5786 (2025–2026), we are excited to share our sixth annual Jewish Spark Unity Art Calendar with you.

This calendar is more than a guide for Shabbat times and holidays—it's a source of light and inspiration for your home and community life. We hope each page reminds you of the beauty of our heritage and inspires deeper connection with Jewish learning, celebration, and tradition.

This year has brought challenges for our brothers and sisters in Israel and for Jews worldwide. In response, our mission is to flood the world with light—through acts of kindness, mitzvot, and unity—pushing away darkness and strengthening our shared Jewish pride.

We are thrilled to announce that The Jewish Spark will host our first-ever High Holiday services! We warmly invite you, your family, and friends to join us for uplifting and meaningful celebrations as we begin the year together.

Our weekly Kabbalah class on the Torah portion continues to inspire and connect participants, offering deep insights and meaningful discussion each week.

Here at The Jewish Spark, we welcome every Jew—regardless of background or experience—to join us in authentic and uplifting Jewish experiences throughout the year.

May this new year bring peace to Israel, safety to our people, and joy, health, and blessings to you and your loved ones.

With warmth and friendship,

Shternie Rosenfeld
Executive Director

THIS CALENDAR IS DEDICATED TO THE LUBAVITCHER REBBE O.B.M.,
RABBI MENACHEM M. SCHNEERSOHN

His personal devotion to each and every individual Jew as well as his dedication to G-d and His Torah, continue to inspire the Chabad center here in Montville

A Tour of the Holy Land

Join us for an unforgettable journey through the Land of Israel, guided by a local Israeli tour guide, Aaron Shaffier, who blends biblical texts with the rich history and stunning natural beauty of the land of our patriarchs.

In the opening verse of the Torah, Rashi, the biblical commentator, explains that the Torah begins with the creation of the world to teach us that G-d is the creator of the world. He bestowed the Land of Israel to the Jews. G-d promised Israel to our forefather Abraham as a land for his descendants for all generations, with thousands of mentions of Israel in the Torah.

Our journey begins at Rosh Hanikra, one of Israel's most sought-after natural wonders.

The sea has sculpted the chalk cliffs into stunning caves, where the unique lighting creates a surreal glow on the waters.

Fun FACT

The Dead Sea in Israel is the lowest point on earth, at 1,315 feet below sea level at its lowest point.

Tomb of Samuel

The Prophet Samuel was a pivotal figure in Jewish history. He was born as a result of his mother Hannah's fervent prayers. Hannah, who was childless, prayed for a son and vowed to dedicate him to G-d's service if her prayers were answered. Many of our laws of prayer are learned from Tefilat Chana (Hannah's prayer), which is read annually on Rosh Hashanah. Samuel grew up in the Mishkan (Tabernacle) under the tutelage of Eli, the High Priest. He traveled throughout the Land of Israel, leading the people in the ways of G-d. He anointed both Saul and David as kings of Israel. The Talmud states that Samuel was equal to Moses and Aaron, and one of the 24 books of the Tanach is named after him.

Fun FACT

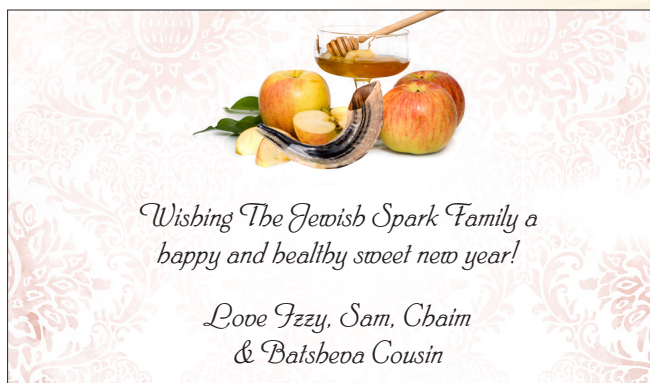

On Yom Kippur in Israel the streets are completely empty of cars. While there is no law on the books mandating this, it is universally respected. Even the Ayalon Freeway in Tel Aviv fills up with pedestrians!

Shomron

After King Solomon's death, the Jewish kingdom split into the southern Kingdom of Judah and the northern Kingdom of Israel. King Omri of Israel, seeking a central capital, purchased land from a man named Shemer and built the city of Shomron, also known as Samaria, which served as Israel's capital for over 150 years. This Jewish city, prominent in many biblical events and criticized by prophets like Elijah and Elisha for its idolatry and injustices, was eventually destroyed by the Assyrians. Later, during the end of the Second Temple Era, King Herod the Great rebuilt the city of Shomron, and renamed it Sebastia. Today, the archaeological remains of Shomron reflect its historical significance and the cultural influence it once held as a capital of the Northern Jewish Kingdom of Israel.

Fun FACT

Israel is the size of New Jersey. The entire country fits into the geography of the state of Texas 33 times. There are only three states smaller than Israel: Connecticut, Delaware, and Rhode Island.

Solomon's Pillars

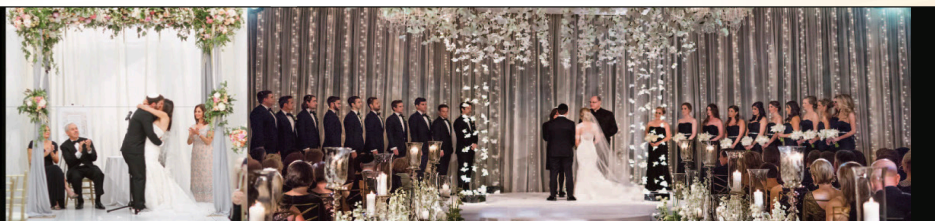

"Solomon's Pillars" is a natural rock formation at Timnah in the Aravah Desert near Eilat. Timnah is the site of ancient copper mines dating to the time of King Solomon, which may have been a significant source of Solomon's great wealth. King Solomon, the son of King David, is renowned for his wisdom, exemplified by the biblical story of his judgement in the case of two women claiming to be the mother of the same child. King Solomon's building projects, economic alliances, and trade networks brought wealth, peace and prosperity to Israel. During his reign, he oversaw the construction of the First Temple in Jerusalem, built on the plot his father, King David, had purchased for the Temple, the spiritual center for the Jewish people for over 400 years. King Solomon's reign is often considered the golden age of Israel due to the peace and prosperity.

Fun FACT

Israeli postage stamps use a glue that is certified kosher so that anyone can lick the glue to affix the stamp. In many countries they are vegan and gluten-free.

Mount Gerizim

Mount Gerizim, as viewed from atop Mount Eival. These two mountains frame the valley of Shechem and are the famous site of the blessings and curses carried out by Joshua upon the Jews' entry into the Promised Land as commanded in the Torah:

"And when the Lord your G-d brings you into the land that you are entering to take possession of it, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal." – Deut 11:29.

During this ceremony, half of the tribes stood on Mount Gerizim, while the other half stood on Mount Ebal. This ceremony is recorded in detail in the book of Joshua and elaborated on in the Talmud. Today, visitors to Mt. Gerizim and Mt. Eival can gain insight into the historical roots the Jewish people have in this area.

Fun FACT

Statistics show that Israel is one of the safest countries in the world. In 2022 the intentional homicide rate in Israel was 1.6 per 100,000. Compare that with a rate of 4.3 in Argentina, 5.3 in Greenland and 6.3 in the US in the same year!

Tiberias

Tiberias, along with Jerusalem, Hebron, and Safed, is one of Israel's four holy cities.

Following the destruction of Jerusalem, it was the final seat of the Sanhedrin, the Jewish supreme court. From the second through tenth centuries CE, Tiberias flourished as a center of Torah study and was the largest Jewish city in the Galilee, where much of the Mishnah and Talmud were compiled.

The ancient Synagogue of Hamat Tiberias dates to the time of the Mishnah. The ornate mosaic floor features Jewish symbols, including a Menorah, shofar, lulav, etrog, and the incense pan from the Temple. It's incredible to see the same Jewish symbols featured in synagogues today. It also features a wheel with the four seasons and 12 constellations with their names in Hebrew.

Fun FACT

Israel's love for life can be seen in its high fertility rate. Israel has a fertility rate of 2.9, the highest of any developed nation on Earth! For comparison the US has a fertility rate of 1.6, Canada 1.3 and South Korea 0.78.

Jacob's Dream

Nestled on the ancient 'Patriarchs Path' just outside of Beit El lies a site known as Sheikh Abdullah. This small, domed building was originally constructed by Muslims. Over time, it also gained significance among the Crusaders. Given its historical context and strategic location, many scholars believe this site could be where Jacob experienced his famous dream.

One of the most famous dreams in our history occurred when Jacob stopped for the night on the road outside Beit El on his way out of Israel. Jacob dreamed of a ladder with angels ascending and descending. In this dream, G-d appeared and told Jacob, "The land on which you lie, to you will I give it, and to your descendants." (Bereishit 28:5). Upon waking, Jacob recognized the sanctity of the ground beneath him and named the place Beit El, meaning "House of G-d."

Fun FACT

Israel is the only country where you can celebrate Purim for 2 days. While the whole world observes Purim on the 14th of Adar, Jerusalem celebrates on the 15th. Some cities like Tzfat and Hebron celebrate both days!

Kidron Valley

Jerusalem's Kidron Valley is known in the Torah as the Valley of Jehoshaphat. In this valley, King Jehoshaphat, one of the kings of Israel, overthrew the enemies of Israel.

Framed by the flowers is the Second Temple rock-cut tomb monument known as Yad-Avshalom; it is often attributed to King David's son Avshalom, but it was built during the Second Temple era hundreds of years later. It was common during that time for wealthy Jews in Jerusalem to build monuments on their family burial plots. The Kidron Valley lies between the Temple Mount and the Mount of Olives. The Mount of Olives has been a Jewish cemetery for 3,000 years. It is the largest Jewish cemetery in the world, with over one hundred thousand graves.

Fun FACT

The Jewish people have been in the Land of Israel for over 3800 years. Even when 99% of Jewish People were exiled after the destruction of the Temple some Jewish presence has always remained.

Battleground of David and Goliath

The legendary battle of David and Goliath took place in the Emek HaElah or the Elah Valley. The valley is named after the Elah Tree, known in English as the Atlantic Pistachio or Terebinth. In the famous narrative, David, armed with only a sling and five round pebbles, slays Goliath, the giant Philistine warrior. At the bottom of the valley is a brook, where David collects the pebbles. Goliath had challenged the Jewish army to send out a man who would oppose him in single combat. The sight of this giant, covered in armor, terrified the Jewish army. Day after day, Goliath sent his challenge to the Jews without receiving an answer. Young David, a complete unknown then, rose to the challenge and succeeded, sending the Philistine army into disarray.

Fun FACT

The largest Jewish pilgrimage event in the world today is Lag B'Omer in Meron. Each year about 600,000 people gather in Meron to commemorate the passing of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, the author of the Zohar.

Abraham's Gate

Discovered in the ancient city of Dan, this is the oldest complete arch in the world. Archeologists have determined that this mudbrick gate is 4,000 years old, and is named after Abraham, our forefather. Abraham had a nephew named Lot, who lived in the city of Sodom. When the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and other surrounding areas were captured by an army of four kings in the area, Lot was taken captive. When Abraham found out what happened to Lot, he led a force of his men and rescued Lot and all of his people and belongings. Abraham would have seen and perhaps entered this gate when he pursued Lot's captors to Dan and beyond to Damascus, as mentioned in Genesis 14:14.

Fun FACT

While the Torah contains 613 commandments, dozens of them can only be observed in the land of Israel. Prominent among these are the agricultural laws such as taking tithes from produce and leaving the land fallow in the 7th – Shemitah – year.

Ein Avdat

Ein Avdat, about 25 miles south of Be'er Sheva, is one of the only perennial freshwater springs in the entire area. Some scholars propose that this might be the site of Be'er Lechai Roi. This biblical wellspring is mentioned in Genesis multiple times. The first mention is when discussing the story of Hagar, Sarah's maidservant. Hagar runs away, and it is at this wellspring that an angel appears to Hagar and instructs her to return to her mistress, Sarah. Later on, the Torah tells us that Isaac leaves Be'er Lechai Roi to go and meet his future wife, Rebecca, and finally, the text states, "After Abraham's death, G-d blessed his son Isaac, who then lived near Be'er Lechai Roi" (Gen. 25:11). Every step you take in the Holy Land is rich with spiritual and historical significance to the Jewish people, with many biblical references to the various regions of Israel.

Fun FACT

While many think of Israel as a desert, Israel has many mountain areas that get one or more days of snow. At 7,336 feet above sea level, Mount Hermon has snow for several months every year and even features a popular ski resort.

Nahal Prat

The Nahal Prat is a breathtakingly beautiful oasis flowing with fresh water and teeming with life amid the harsh Judean Desert. This hidden gem features lush greenery, vibrant wildlife, and serene pools, contrasting the surrounding arid landscape. Nahal Prat is mentioned in Jeremiah 13:4 when G-d orders the prophet to take his belt down to the Prat and hide it in a cleft in the rock. Upon returning, he finds the belt dissolved, symbolizing the destruction that would come upon Jerusalem. The great prophet Jeremiah witnessed the destruction of Jerusalem and the Holy Temple after pleading with the Jews to return to G-d to avert disaster. On Tisha Ba'v, we read the book of Eichah (Lamentations), written by Jeremiah, which lamented the fate of the destruction. Jeremiah also encouraged the Jews living in exile and prophesized about the future redemption.

Fun FACT

Hundreds of Torah scrolls, some more than 700 years old, are housed at a surprising location – a closed IDF base. This is the largest Holy Torah Ark in the world.

People are mirrors for each other. If you see the faults of another person it is truly your own faults you see. This is G-d's great kindness to us, for without this device we would never be able to determine our true faults.

Sorek Cave

Also known as Avshalom Cave, the Stalactite Cave was discovered by accident in May of 1968 when quarrying revealed this extraordinary natural cave in the bedrock.

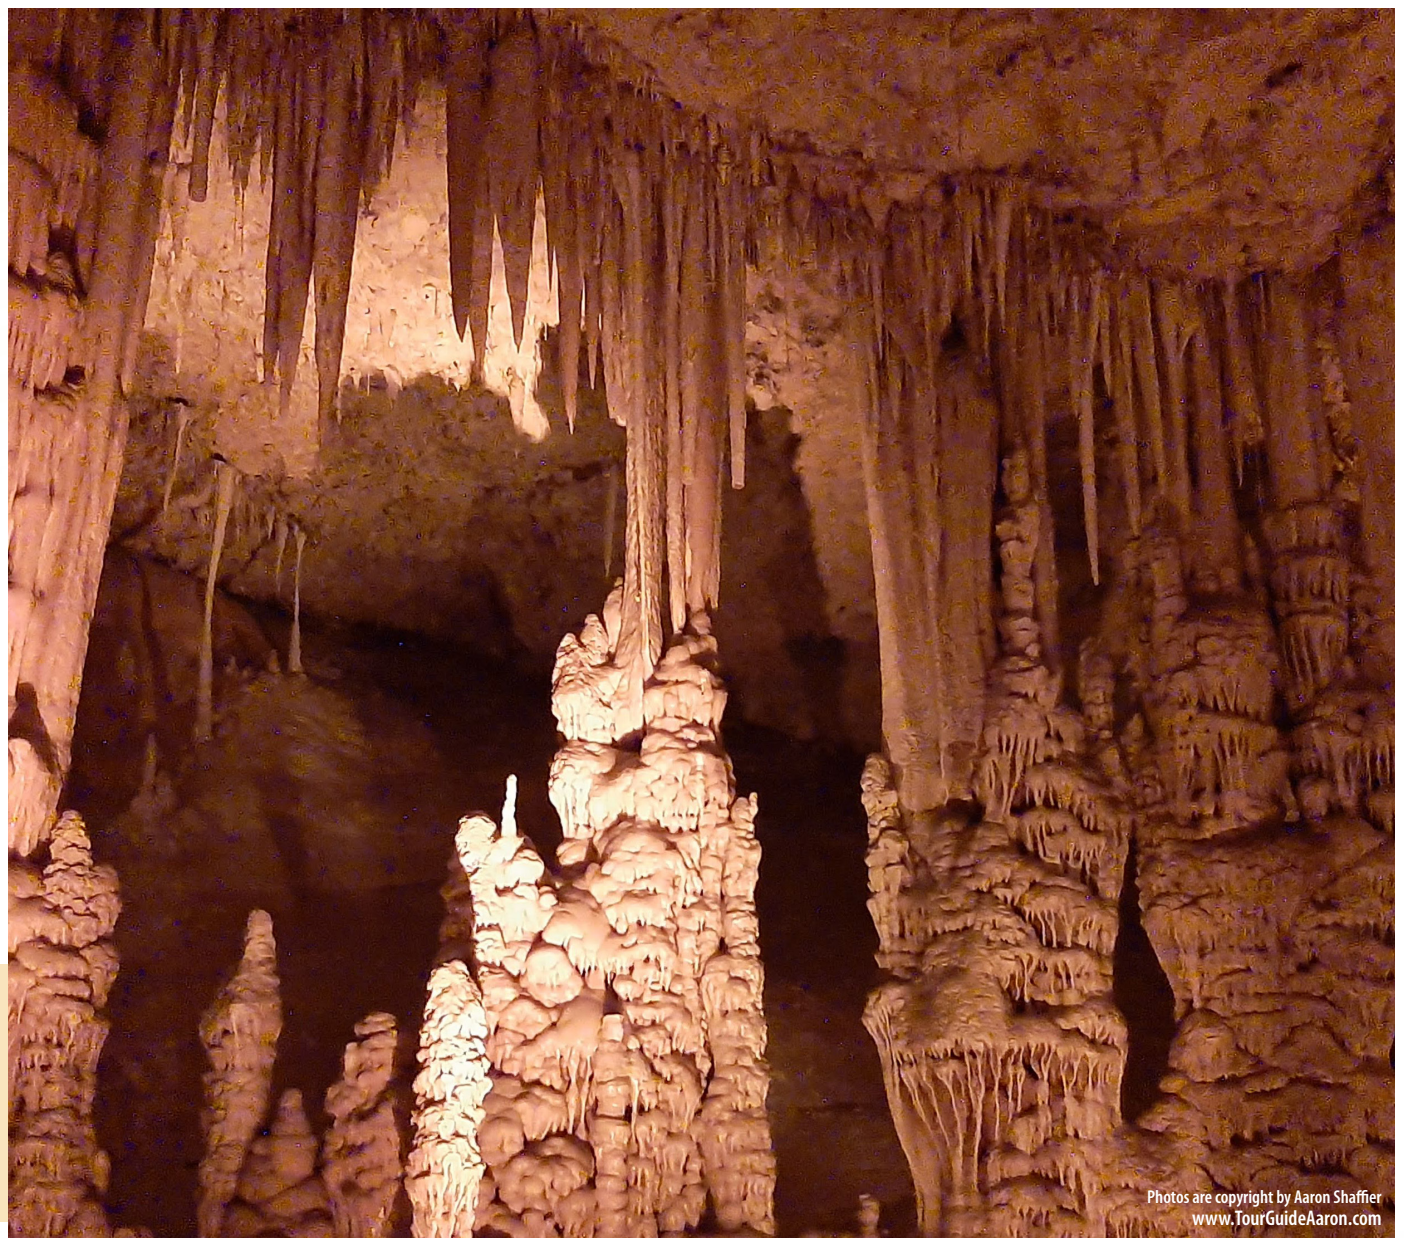

Because the cave was never exposed to the outside, the formations were perfectly preserved in their pristine condition, making it the world's best-preserved cave of its type.

The land of Israel is not just a geographic location with extraordinary beauty but a sacred space deeply intertwined with Jewish identity and faith, referenced thousands of times throughout the Torah. Every step in this land is steeped in history and holiness. Our ancestors lived in this land, the home of the two Holy Temples, G-d's special space, and a country where Jews lived for millennia.

Fun FACT

Israel has an extremely diverse landscape. Snow capped Hermon Mountain, the Dead Sea – the lowest place on earth, the forests of Mt Carmel and the Galilee, the sandy beaches of the Mediterranean and the harsh Negev and Judean deserts.
